

Please note: While faculty have identified times below in which their courses will meet, each professor will also assign asynchronous daily work. For this reason, it is important that students only enroll in ONE of the below courses during the September Session.

	9:00-11:50am	1:10-2:00pm	2:10-5:00pm
All September Session courses run daily from September 8 - 25	IE/TS 230 – Islamic Religious Thought – J.Rhodes	SU 101 01 – Graduate Writing Seminar – Meverden	BX 201 02 – Exegesis: Critical Text Analysis – Hamori
	NT 331 – Practicum: Reading Ancient Sources and Images – Kahl (Wednesdays only; meets 2:10-5:00pm all other days)		CW 223 – Sacraments, Hospitality and Globalization – Carvalhaes
	RE 504 – Theology & Education Process – Boys		NT 331 – Practicum: Reading Ancient Sources and Images – Kahl (note: course meets 9:00-11:50am on Wednesdays)
	SE 208 – Moral Traditions and Social Ethics – Azaransky
	UT 101 – Introduction to Theological Studies – Jones/P.Cooper-White

SU 190 September Session offerings:

SU 190 courses will meet on both Saturday dates and times identified below, with asynchronous work assigned during the week.

	Course Title
September 12 & 19	SU 190 AB1 – Topics in Ministry: Building a Moral Revolution to End Poverty – Barnes (9:00 – 12:00 PM)
September 12 & 19	SU 190 JC1 – Topics in Ministry: Women in Prison in the Time of COVID and Black Lives Matter – Clark (12:00 – 3:00 PM)
September 12 & 19	SU 190 AK1 – Topics in Ministry: Humanist Life Passage Ceremonies – Klaeyesen (3:00 – 6:00 PM)